GENERAL SECRETARY: SELECTION OF AN OFFICIAL CANDIDATE

1 Official candidate

- 1.1 The National Executive Committee will decide, not more than 12 and not less than 8 months before the term of a serving General Secretary is due to expire, whether to exercise its power, as set out in Rule 27.1, to select an official candidate to stand for election to the office of General Secretary.
- 1.2 On deciding that an official candidate will be sought, the National Executive Committee will also decide:

- 2.2 The panel will consist of the President, three members of the National Executive Committee elected by the National Executive Committee, and four members elected by National Congress who are not members of the National Executive Committee and who are, at the time of election, National Congress delegates.
- 2.3 No Trustee of the Union may be a member of the shortlisting panel.
- 2.4 National Congress-elected members of the panel will serve until the next election of a General Secretary has been concluded, unless a member submits a written resignation, becomes a member of the National Executive Committee or Trustee of the Union, ceases to be a member of the Union, or becomes an interested party as defined in paragraph 3 of this Schedule.

National Executive Committee members of the shortlisting panel will be replaced in accordance with the process agreed under paragraph 1.2c of this Schedule only if this can be done in time for the replacement National Executive Committee member of the shortlisting panel to attend the first meeting of that shortlisting panel.

3 Interested parties

3.1 A person who applies for selection as the official candidate or is nominated for election to the position of General Secretary is an interested party and may not remain a member of the shortlisting panel. Such a person will not attend any selection meeting of the National Executive Committee, other than in the capacity of an applicant, while remaining a candidate for the post of General Secretary.

3.2 If the President either applies to be the official candidate or agrees to be nominated for election, such application or nomination will not be valid unless the President has notified the National Executive Committee of his or her intention to be a candidate prior to the application or nomination being submitted. If the National Executive Committee receives such notification it must appoint another of its members to perform the functions of the President under this Schedule C, and Schedule B. This applies equally to any person performing the functions of the President under Rule 21.1.

- d. National Congress-elected members of the shortlisting panel will elect from among themselves a member who will attend as an observer any interview held by the National Executive Committee under paragraph 7 of this Standing Order.

4.2 The President will convene a meeting of the shortlisting panel within 35 days of the date determined for receipt of applications and nominations for the post of General Secretary. At that meeting the panel will consider applications received in accordance with Schedule B for the position of official candidate for the post of General Secretary and will draw up a shortlist of names comprising a minimum of two applicants. The process for determining this shortlist will be that agreed by the short-listing panel. The shortlist will not contain the name of any person who has not applied in writing to the President for selection. The shortlisting panel may decide that a meeting should be adjourned to enable interviews of candidates to take place or for other reasons, provided that its shortlist of applicants is finalised within 28 days of the first meeting of the panel.

5 The shortlist

- 5.1 The President will submit to the National Executive Committee the shortlist of applicants drawn up by the shortlisting panel. If the panel has determined that there are no suitable applicants, the President must communicate this to the National Executive Committee.

7 Failure to agree official candidate

- 7.1 If the National Executive Committee fails to agree an official candidate by a simple majority of those members present and voting it may decide to revise the timetable for election to the post of General Secretary. In that event the position of official candidate must be readvertised and the selection process started again. If the National Executive Committee fails to agree an official candidate under a timetable revised under this Rule, a ballot between properly nominated candidates will be held.

8 Withdrawal of official candidate

- 8.1 If an official candidate withdraws from the election at any stage prior to the distribution of voting papers to members for a ballot in which they are a candidate, the National Executive Committee must decide that the processes governing the selection of an official candidate and election to the post of General Secretary are started again. In that event the National Executive Committee will determine an appropriate new timetable for election to the post of General Secretary as if a casual vacancy were due to arise.
